

The 31st Annual Mayor's Prayer Breakfast was held Friday, June 3rd at the Embassy Suites. The Prayer Breakfast has become one of the Mayor's favorite events.

Commissioner Tim Jeffers gave the Invocation and John Gardner, Sr., Board Member, led everyone in the Pledge of Allegiance. Guest speaker was Pastor Tim Harkness, Harvest Bible Chapel, who graciously agreed to speak after Jim Penrice was unable to attend due to illness. Pastor Tim's message was very spiritual and everyone was moved by it. Entertainment was provided by Rachel West-Kramer from the Hands of Love Ministry. Rachel's voice is truly a gift from God and everyone was in awe of her.

Two scholarships were presented at the breakfast: Allyson DuBois was presented with the East Peoria Chamber of Commerce Business Scholarship and Cody Pullium was presented the Terance Brewer Community Service Memorial Scholarship.

Sponsors of the breakfast were: Ameren, Cullinan Properties, Ltd., Embassy Suites, Federal Companies, Kuhl & Company, and Oberlander Electric Company.

The Embassy Suites provided a beautiful venue for the breakfast and went above and beyond our expectations with the addition of a beautifully crafted praying hands ice sculpture. A special treat were the cooked-to-order omelet stations in addition to the breakfast buffet. Pastries, a yogurt "flute" and espresso were also very nice touches. The addition of chair covers made the room look fantastic. Thanks to Rick Hulse, Chef Graham Mullett, MaryBeth Milburn, Diana Anderson, and Beth Meier for making this year's prayer breakfast one of the best ever!

ICC Student Journalists Win Awards: Justin Glawe, Peoria, and Drew Veskauf, Morton, were honored at the Illinois Community College Journalism Association's spring conference held in April at Moraine Valley Community College in Palos Hills, Illinois. Glawe and Veskauf had entered their work while students on staff of the Harbinger, the ICC student newspaper. ICC entries competed in the Division II category designated for tri-weekly/monthly publications at colleges with enrollment over 5,000 students. Glawe won first place in Division II Sports News for a story entitled "Cougar Controversy" that was about 14 players on the men's baseball team quitting in November. The story appeared in the February 28 issue of the newspaper. He also won first place in Division II Sports Photo for a picture captured during the January 29 men's basketball game between ICC and Lincoln Land which shows ICC's Michael Young going up for a lay-up as an opponent attempts to block the shot. Glawe also won an honorable mention in the sports photo category for another basketball photo. He is finishing his first year at ICC and is majoring in journalism. Veskauf received an honorable mention for Division II Photo Spread for pictures taken during the student carnival. Veskauf is a 2010 ICC graduate who is currently attending Northern Illinois University where he writes for the Northern Star. Harbinger advisors are Gary Hale and John Sharp.
